100 Years of Shchedryk – Carol of the Bells

Shchedryk – from the Ukrainian word “shchedryi” = bountiful – is a Ukrainian Shchedrivka, or New Year’s carol. The English version – Carol of the Bells – is the world’s most popular Christmas song. Exactly 100 years ago, in 1916, a Ukrainian choir performed Shchedryk for the first time. The song was composed by Mykola Leontovych, a Ukrainian composer, in 1914. Based on a pre-Christian folk song, the original Ukrainian version tells the story of a swallow flying into a household to sing of wealth that will come with the following Spring in April – the New Year. On October 5, 1921, Shchedryk was first performed by Alexander Koshetz’s Ukrainian National Chorus in New York’s Carnegie Hall. In 1936, Peter Wilhousky presented the English version of the song – Carol of the Bells.
